Dear Dr. Wong

Thank you for your excellent presentation to our club, "After The Wall Street Meltdown - What Strategies Make Sense".

I realize you adjusted your talk to the time available but believe you covered the subject adequately. Your illustrations using references to fairy tales we knew as children was effective.

Our residents are in the retirement age-group and need to conserve their assets. There was genuine interest expressed by them in the question and answer time at the conclusion of your presentation. Several stayed to talk to you after the meeting had adjourned. This indicated to me that your presentation was well received and helpful to our members.

Good luck on your continued effort to educate people in investment strategies.

Sincerely,

Don Griffith, Program Chairman
