Dear Dr. Wong:

On behalf of the men's group at Good Shepherd of the Hills Episcopal Church in Cave Creek, I would like to thank you for your stimulating presentation on the "Secrets of the Rockefeller Trust" which you gave on March 23, 2016. You certainly provided a lot of information on what advance planning on the part of very wealthy individuals has meant to their continued wealth status and tax burden. While we live in a great country, our individual tax burdens seem inordinately high, especially this time of the year. While no one in our group is in a class with the Rockefellers or Kennedys, you presented some ideas how in our own way, our tax burden might be reduced.

Your presentation was well organized and the visual aids and hand out well designed to emphasize the points in your presentation. Thank you and your staff for making our meeting a success.

Very truly yours,
