To Whom it May Concern,

On July 24th and July 25th, 2013 Dr. Harold Wong provided free financial seminars at the Minot Public Library. During the first presentation, Dr. Wong discussed the topic of Roth IRAs and Multigenerational IRAs. The second evening Dr. Wong shared some of Warren Buffet's secrets to financial success.

Both of Dr. Wong's presentations were well-attended; more than thirty people signed up for each evening. In addition, the audience seemed to enjoy the information presented as well as the presenter – attendees asked questions and stayed after the program to discuss issues in greater detail.

Dr. Wong presented information that was both valuable and accessible and he did so in a clear and humorous manner. I was very pleased with the program and with the attendance and I believe that our patrons were equally pleased with the information they gained!

Sincerely,

Janet Anderson
