Dear Dr. Wong,

I just wanted to say "thank you" for the 2 day seminar that you held on March 18th and 19th. The speakers you provided on Saturday were very informative. It was hard to believe they actually shared with the audience their own personal formulas plus examples of their recent successful transactions.

You promised to show us how the "big boys" eliminate or minimize their income taxes. The speakers on Sunday gave an overwhelming amount of tax options and I, as a real estate investor found the information extremely valuable.

You gave us new insights for lease options with the 5 levels of management and of course, excellent information of how to work with Millionaire Investors.

It was an incredible weekend with great speakers yourself included. Your seminar was certainly very reasonably priced and it was a relief not to be solicited for books or tapes since our libraries are large enough. I look forward to your next seminar.

Best Regards,
