Dr. Wong:

I just wanted to let you know how much I enjoyed the seminar this past weekend.

Without reservation, your seminars provide the most value for the money and provide real estate investors with practical information that can be immediately acted upon and more importantly, your ideas and methodologies can be utilized on properties that would have otherwise not been deals worth pursuing.

My business partner, Brad Tegtman, (623) 606-6615 and/or btegtman@msn.com, is interested in speaking with you regarding the 1.5 – 3% loans that you have available, to maybe refinance his current residence as well as secure additional investment opportunities. You may or may not remember meeting Brad at the Robert Shemin weekend. I have told Brad about each of your seminars that I have attended, and how I believe that you would be able to help him.

In the meantime, I have begun working on the follow up action plan to our conversation, and will send you a draft by the end of the week.

Thanks,

Dave
